Our next film will be on Saturday, October 21st, from 3 – 5 PM in honor of Indigenous Peoples Day this month. We'll view and discuss together, "AWAKE: A Dream from Standing Rock," which depicts the indigenous frontline battle against the Dakota Access pipeline. From their website:

"The Water Protectors at Standing Rock captured world attention through their peaceful resistance. While many may know the details, AWAKE, A Dream from Standing Rock captures the story of Native-led defiance that forever changed the fight for clean water, our environment, and the future of our planet. The film is a collaboration between Indigenous filmmakers, Director Myron Dewey, Executive Producer Doug Good Feather and environmental Oscar Nominated filmmakers Josh Fox and James Spione. It is a labor of love to support the peaceful movement of the water protectors."
